

Lalit Ahuja
CEO, ANSR Consulting

Lalit Ahuja is the CEO of ANSR Consulting, the largest global company specializing in establishment of GICs. Since its inception in 2004, ANSR has established 24 GIC's in India, aggregating to 40,000 jobs and over $1 billion in GIC capital investments. In addition, Lalit is the founder of Kyron Global Accelerator, the largest start-up engagement platform for global enterprises in India.

Lalit is also the Strategic Advisor of Lowes India, a GIC of Lowe's Companies Inc, the second largest home improvement retailer in the US that operates a chain of 1,800 retail home improvement and appliance stores in the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Lalit is a member for the board of several GICs in India, including Lowes, JC Penney, L Brands, HBC, AB-Inbev and Great West Financial. He is the strategic advisor on innovation & IT to the state of Andhra Pradesh.

Lalit has previously served in the following roles:

Managing Director of Mast Global Services India (an L Brands Company)

Managing Director of Lowe's India

Chairman and President of Target India

CEO of NDS India Limited (now a Cisco Company)

CEO of News Corporation (STAR TV) and $300M News Corporation Venture Fund

CEO of LG Electronics

CEO of Datamatics Ltd, Mumbai

Senior Executive Advisor, Distribution Sector, IBM, Japan

Lalit started his career in the Indian Navy before retiring as a Lieutenant Commander. While in the Navy, he was the Head of the prestigious Naval Computer Applications Center in Lonavla and was Senior Engineer Officer at INS Vindhyagiri and INS Shakti. Lalit has an MS in Computer Science from IIT, Mumbai and is an engineering graduate from Birla Institute of Technology and Science, Pilani. Lalit has also served as a distinguished member of the Global Council for Thunderbird School of Global Management in Phoenix, AZ.